Sermon

Hymn 65: 'Jubilate everybody'

Doxology 806: 'To Father, Son and Holy Ghost'

Heavenly Father, as I prepare to join fellow believers in worship, quiet my mind, and focus my thoughts on You.

Let every song, scripture, and sermon resonate deeply within me, guiding me closer to Your presence. As I lift my voice in praise, let it be a sweet sound to Your ears, and may my worship be a testament to my love and devotion to You.

After The Service

You are invited to join with the congregation in the hall for a cuppa and a chat with friends old and new. If this is your first visit, come along and make yourself known, we look forward to getting to know

Church Bins

Following some confusion over the use of the church bins, please see below for some clarification:

For the Blue Bin:

Aluminium and steel cans; clean cardboard and paper including magazines and newspapers; plastic bottles, cartons.

Not for the Blue Bin:

Black bags; carrier bags; foil; plastic film and clingfilm; glass; polystyrene; food; used paper towels and tissues.

The reason the difference to house blue bin and the Church blue bin is church is a commercial uplift if unsure put in green bin with yellow lid - please speak with Douglas Pearson if you have any queries.
