Thank you for this beautiful Sunday morning. I come to you in prayer this morning, asking for the type of focus that only you can provide in this busy world. Help me to focus on the greatness of you and the life you have planned for me. Help me take any distractions and see they are trivial earthly struggles in comparison to the joy you will bring that is everlasting. Amen.

After The Service

You are invited to join with the congregation in the hall for a cuppa and a chat with friends old and new. If this is your first visit, come along and make yourself known, we look forward to getting to know
